UNITED NATIONS ACADEMIC IMPACT

The United Nations Academic Impact is a programme of the Outreach Division of the Department of Public Information. It is open to all institutions of higher education granting degrees or their equivalent, as well as bodies whose substantive responsibilities relate to the conduct of research.

The essential frame of reference is:

1. To bring into association with the United Nations, and with each other, institutions of higher learning throughout the world.
2. To provide a mechanism for such institutions to commit themselves to the fundamental precepts driving the United Nations mandate, in particular the realization of the universally accepted Sustainable Development Goals.
3. To serve as a viable point of contact for ideas and proposals relevant to the United Nations mandate.
4. To promote the direct engagement of institutions of higher education in programs, projects and initiatives relevant to this mandate.

The United Nations Academic Impact (UNAI) is a global initiative that aligns institutions of higher education with the United Nations in furthering the realization of the purposes and mandate of the Organization through activities and research in a shared culture of intellectual social responsibility.

VISION

Brilliance in social activities and research, that promotes prosperity and economic opportunity, greater social well-being, and protection of the environment.

MISSION

- To offer state of art path forward for improving the lives of nearby people.
- To undertake collaborative projects with government for the welfare of the society.
- To instil ethical, social and environmental perspectives for the sustainable development of the community.
- To nurture imagination, Intellectual social responsibility and interpersonal skills among students.
- To promote technical knowledge, sharing culture and coordinate humanitarian relief operations

PRINCIPLES

1. A commitment to the principles inherent in the United Nations Charter as values that education seeks to promote and help fulfil.

2. A commitment to human rights, among them freedom of inquiry, opinion, and speech.
3. A commitment to educational opportunity for all people regardless of gender, race, religion or ethnicity.
4. A commitment to the opportunity for every interested individual to acquire the skills and knowledge necessary for the pursuit of higher education.
5. A commitment to building capacity in higher education systems across the world.
6. A commitment to encouraging global citizenship through education.
7. A commitment to advancing peace and conflict resolution through education.
8. A commitment to addressing issues of poverty through education.
9. A commitment to promoting sustainability through education.
10. A commitment to promoting inter-cultural dialogue and understanding, and the “unlearning” of intolerance, through education.

ASPIRE

The student branch of the UN Academic Impact is known as ASPIRE: Action by Students to Promote Innovation and Reform through Education.

ASPIRE is a student-driven initiative and actively embodies UNAI's principles within student communities around the world. Operating locally within their communities, the activities of each ASPIRE group contributes to UNAI's overall message of unity and action to address global challenges.

ASPIRE personifies the saying, “Sharing a Culture of Intellectual Social Responsibility.” It connects student organizations and individuals to global opportunities through the United Nations, educational and academic institutions, and civil society groups that focus on the UNAI principles.

ASPIRE groups are directly affiliated to UNAI, and when their institution is a UNAI member, to it as well.

ASPIRE prioritizes above all else, activism and action by students to promote and support the ten universally accepted UNAI principles.

FOUNDATION

The student chapter was set up on 05/06/2017. It consists of a governing body and members from various departments of the school. The head of the governing body is the Chairman followed by two staff in charges for the chapter. It constitutes a student coordinator, a joint coordinator and three committees with each having a committee head and joint coordinator.
